

Elaine B. Partnow

"The Quotable Woman"

Performance Scholar - Author

Keynotes

Seminars

Breakouts

Coaching

LIVING HISTORY PORTRAYALS OF STRONG & SPIRITED WOMEN

Pick a Theme like...

*American Sheroes * Hispanic Sheroes * Sheroes of Diversity*

*Literary Sheroes * Jewish Sheroes * Emily Dickinson: Shero*

Think Hal Holbrook playing Mark Twain. Think Lily Tomlin playing all her characters. Then think: What if all the wise, funny and notable women who have marked our lives from antiquity to modern times were to come alive?

Whichever selection you make, your audience will be captivated by the entertaining, educational and realistic portraits

Elaine creates. Eleanor Roosevelt, Ursula K. LeGuin, Sojourner Truth, Murasaki Shikibu, Bella Abzug, Teresa of Avila, Golda Meir, Mae West -- thirty-five women in all, from all ages and all over the world.

Shedding light on the enormous contributions women have made, these interactive programs help audiences discover that "women's issues" pertain to the full spectrum of life, from civil rights to the environment to matters of the heart.

An array of costumes and props add color and excitement to this engaging and immensely popular program.

Perfect for conference kickoffs and fundraisers!

*"Delightful, innovative approach to history....
Your interaction with the audience was superb...
Great actor and presenter!"
Department of Energy, Spokane*

*"Our convention theme was Celebrate Women! and your presentation was perfect..."
General Federation of Women's Clubs, Wash.*

*"Your performance was breathtaking."
Southeastern Louisiana University*

visit www.TheQuotableWoman.com

Call to Reserve
Your Dates

850.510-9679

QuotableGal@aol.com

Elaine also teaches workshops on how to create a living history portrait and public speaking.